WORK EXPERIENCE

Infosys Limited, Hyderabad, Telangana   Feb, 2015 — Present

Projects Summary: Worked for various projects for Adidas and gave contribution to number of Internal Projects.

Designers Portal (8 Months): An Angular JS based large scale web application that aims at collating the workflows of various business-units in the client organization.

Technologies Used: • Angular JS • HTML5/CSS3 • Bootstrap • Restful Web Services

Role Played: • Front-end developer of a number of modules of the application, which involved the designing and implementation of various life-cycle stages of product development in Adidas.

Material Online Shop (1 year): A web-based tool that allows Designers in Adidas to look at the various available materials and after filtering out a particular material purchase it online or add it to his own basket.

Technologies Used: • Angular JS • HTML5/CSS3 • Bootstrap • Restful Web Services

Role Played: • Involved in designing and subsequent development of various modules of this online purchase portal • Contributed in making the already written code optimized • Worked on making the website compatible across various commonly used Web Browser and resolved many cross browser compatibility issues

• Communicated with client to gather requirements and feedback • Led a team of 4 people (all 3 people senior to me) in delivering the front-end tasks associated with this portal.

Other Works:

Apart from the aforementioned Client-oriented projects, I have an experience of working on many internal tools and websites for the organization. 'e-Assistant' : Portal to take care of day to day requirements of trainees in Mysore developed solely by me (was appreciated for the this innovative idea). Have contributed in Infosys Bench Utilization program: 'Accelerate' for small tasks posted.

Achievements:

- Insta Award – June, 2016
- Have twice been rated as Outstanding Performer by managers.
- Have been appreciated by Client, PM, SPM, GPM and Delivery Manager for speedy delivery of a critical project.
- Appreciated on Infosys 'Appreciate Portal' by subordinate for helping them in crucial times.
